The Horse Disease. BALTIMORE, November 1. Thirty-seven of the eighty seven horse cars of this city have been taken off the road, and the cars now stop their trips at 11 P. M. It is estimated that four thousand horses are affected.

WASHINGTON, November 1. The horse malady is undoubtedly here, but it seems less severe than at points further North. At noon to-day there were fifty-one sick horses on the Avenue PHILADELPHIA, November 1.

The horse disease is breaking out among the racers, and the Suffolk Park races have been postponed in consequence. No fatal cases have yet occurred, but some ten thousand horses are affected.

on Thursday evening last, was not as large as the character of the performance or the object of the concert deserved. The audience, however, was an appreciative one, and thoroughly enjoyed the fine music of the occasion. Mrs. Mahon was enthusiastically re ceived, and fully justified her reception by her delightful singing. "La Trompette Guerriere" was beautifully rendered, and her perfect control of voice in most difficult passages of vocalization enrapured her hearers. With a voice full pour her sympathetic, thoroughly cultivated, a perfect appreciation of the sentiment of composers, and admirable taste and feeling combined make her singing exquisite.

Mr. James Bacon rendered the Overture from "The Merry Wives of Windsor with great brilliancy of execution and good taste. He is by far the most finished Amateur Pianist within our knowledge

Miss Erwin sang "Ernani, Ernam, In-volami" very well, and Miss Sawyer pleased all with "Good-Bye Sweethsart Good Bye."
Mr. S. E. Orchard performed with great success upon the violin, and deserves high commendation. His playing was much admired as it is always, and we award him great praise. Mrs. Cheatham's vocalization was artistic and spirited, especially in the Cava tina Semiramide. Her voice is very fine, and beautifully cultivated. The trios, quartette and the chorus, were decidedly good, and the audience were delighted with them. We make mention of Miss pleasure by the " Marsaillaise." Mr. Tappan's scope of voice is greater than any very well indeed. Professor Koepper deserves commendation for his performance, ooth on the violin and piano. The concert was under his direction, and its success is largely due to his efforts and musical ability. Captain Iredell, as the general manager his usual efficiency.-South Carolinian.

MURDER.-A few mornings since we gave an account of the beating and rob bing of Mr. Ham Martin by a negro high-Intyre alias Ben Bacon. When Mr. Martin was found by the roadside he was insensible. He remained in this condition until a late hour Friday night, when he expired. He was an aged and esteemed citizen, and will be greatly missed by the community in which he resided. Coroner held an inquest upon the body vesterday evening, and the jury returned a verdict that he met his death at the hands of the negro above mentioned. His head and shoulders were fearfully injured by the wooden standard of the wagon which was the weapon used by the mu derer. The grand jury yesterday found a true bill for murder against Bacon, and his trial has been set down for Wednesday. The evidence against him seems perfectly clear. Before leaving town he went into Mr. McDermott's store and signed a contract to work with Mr. Martin for a year, and left town with Mr. Martin. When arrested he had this contract in his pocket and Mr. Martin's cotton receipts. Besides all this, he confessed his guilt when ar

We understand that the evidence ad duced at the post morten examination showed conclusively that a knife was used as well as a stick, and that it was the wounds from the first named weapon which caused Mr. Martin's death. The verdict was "that the deceased came to his death from injuries received on the head by a knife or other sharp instrument in the hands of Henry Johnson." The post mortem examination was made by Dr. Joseph Halton.—Chronicle & Sentinel.

A SAD SUICIDE.—We deeply regret to state that Mr. Charles H. Giles committed suicide in this place, about 1 o'clock on Tuesday last, by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. We know the sad news will be received with feelings of sincere sorrow, by a large number of friends throughout this and the State of Georgia, where he was well known and much regenerous and manly impulses, a genial companion, a firm and true friend.—Union
